Today the 8th of January, 2020

I the undersigned Sandro Chetcuti with reference to the reports carried by the local media about what was stated by the Honourable Dr Angelo Farrugia, Speaker of the House of Representatives, declare under oath that I never had an office in the fourth floor or any other floor of the Labour Party General Headquarters.

My involvement prior to the General Election held in 2013 was to hold meetings with people involved in business from all aspects of the Maltese society with officials from the Labour Party, including Dr Joseph Muscat, then Leader of the Opposition.
